

FREE SERVICES

to support the community during this challenging time!

Applies to selected services only.*

More information can be found on our website www.interrelate.org.au

To support the community during this challenging time, Interrelate will be delivering FREE mediation (Family Dispute Resolution), domestic and family violence support (including male victim support), Children's Contact Service, and counselling, online during isolation and social distancing via chat, video conferencing and phone.

If you would like to find out more information, please visit the Interrelate website COVID-19 page to download the FREE resources or you can call Interrelate on 1300 473 528 to find the best remote support solution.

