

Energy & Water
Ombudsman NSW

Virtual Bring Your Bills & Community Assistance Day

Ulladulla

Wednesday 5 and Thursday 6 August

9am to 3pm

Book by 3 August 2020
to secure your spot

Residents in the Ulladulla and Shoalhaven region are invited to a virtual Bring your Bills and Community Assistance Day hosted by Ulladulla & Districts Community Resources Centre and the Energy & Water Ombudsman NSW.

We will connect you with a range of organisations ready to help you with tax questions, financial counselling, legal information, housing, disability and seniors advocacy, managing fines, help with energy and water bills including EAPA vouchers and rebates and more.

How do you get this help?

Please book a phone appointment to connect with any of these services bookings by calling 02 4454 0477.

Book an appointment with one or more of these agencies

Community services

Shoalhaven Women's Health Centre
Seniors Rights Service
Shoalcoast Community Legal Centre
St Vincent de Paul

Ombudsman services

Energy & Water Ombudsman NSW
NSW Ombudsman

Energy and water providers

Shoalhaven Water
ActewAGL
Alinta Energy
Origin Energy
AGL Energy
Red Energy
Endeavour Energy

Government Services

Australian Taxation Office
Department of Communities & Justice
Services Australia
Service NSW
Aging & Disability Commission
Revenue NSW

You can also call these agencies directly on the day

LawAccess
1300 888 529

You can contact EWON to make an energy or water complaint.

☎ 1800 246 545 ➡ ewon.com.au
@ complaints@ewon.com.au

✉ Reply Paid 86550, Sydney South NSW 1234
Level 11, 133 Castlereagh Street, Sydney

To speak to EWON using an interpreter, contact the Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) on 131 450. People who are deaf, hearing impaired or who have a speech impediment can contact EWON through the National Relay Service on 133 677.